Set up time will begin at 9:00, will need help with set up and clean up. Budget is $2,500.

83 seniors, 123 total people will be at the event. Senior picture needs to be taken in time so photos can be framed, wrapped and given as a gift to each senior at this event.

Teacher Appreciation – Amy Wolf – May 15th and 17th, discussion about scaling back on some food.

Barnes and Noble Book Fair – Sunday, November 19th for in-store event, chairperson needed (perhaps a parent involved in the performing arts).

Main Street – Silent Auction – chair needed

Organizer – Karen Cinelli will chair, but wants a shadow to learn for the following year

Macy's Shop for a Cause – can register for 2017 event in May, need a chairperson

Sign-Up Genius – Amy Wolf researched the benefits of joining a volunteer sign-up website. She discovered that Sign-Up Genius was our best option. It would cost the PTSA $108/year. We could have up to 5 administrators. Email addresses would be stored and can be shared amongst a variety of events. Events would be saved, so information can be passed from year to year easily. Cheryl Brice made a motion to pass signing up for a Genius account, Allison Shira seconded and the motion was passed.

Vice President Report – Cheryl Brice

-membership – 112, need to report to the state by 3/15/17
-has organized a fundraiser through Tritan Tumbler to sell school drink tumblers. The cost would be $20 for each tumbler sold. There would be no upfront expenses and we would make 40% profit on all tumblers sold. She hopes to start the sale in April.

President's Report – Karen Cinelli

-Officer Elections for 2017-2018 School Year – anyone interested in joining the PTSA board should contact Karen Cinelli prior to the April PTSA meeting, nominations will be made at this time. Elections will take place at the May PTSA meeting.

President – Karen Cinelli

Vice President – Amy Wolf

Vice President – Cheryl Brice

Secretary – Beth Hafele

Treasurer – open

-May PTSA Meeting – Mr. Robert Koch II, who is the President of the Signature School Foundation will be speaking. We will discuss refreshments to serve at April PTSA meeting. We will promote the event closer to when it will occur.

-Board of Director's Meeting

-PAR Teacher's Survey was conducted and overall the teachers were satisfied.

-Four staff members will not be returning for the 2017-18 school year

-Currently there are 349 students enrolled at Signature
